

7 Scriptures to Confess Who I am in Christ

I am more than a conqueror in Christ (Romans 8:37)

In Christ, I am more than able to overcome any obstacle that comes my way. It is not by my power, but by His Mighty Hand that I am victorious.

I am the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus (2 Corinthians 5:21)

There is nothing I can do to earn my righteousness. It is not my deeds that make me right with God, but Jesus' sacrifice that produced righteousness on my behalf. Through Him, I am pure in the eyes of God.

I am the head and not the tail, above only and not beneath
(Deuteronomy 28:13)

All things work together for my good because I am called according to His purpose. (Romans 8:28) Regardless of how situations may look for me in the natural, I will come out ahead and God will use them for my good. I can be confident in Him and His ability to take care of me.

I am far from oppression and fear does not come near me (Isaiah 54:14)

No weapon formed against me will prosper! Jesus died that I may be set free. I don't have to live under oppression and fear has no hold over me, because Jesus hasn't given me a spirit of fear, but one of power, love and a sound mind.
(2 Timothy 1:7)

I am a daughter of the Most High (John 1:12)

When I accepted Jesus as my Lord, I was accepted into the family of God. I am now a daughter of the Most High. He protects me, guides me, teaches me and takes care of me.

I am covered by the Blood of Jesus (1 John 1:7)

When Jesus died on the cross, His precious blood was poured out for me. That blood is a covering that keeps me safe and washes me from all my sins. I am made whole by His blood.
